

STACEY WALLACE

EXECUTIVE & LEADERSHIP COACH

Stacey Wallace is a highly qualified executive and career development coach. For over a decade, Stacey has been coaching clients to advance and finetune their practices to achieve their professional and career goals.

QUALIFICATIONS

- ▶ Master of Career Development
- ▶ Bachelor of Commerce (Human Resource Management; Business Economics)
- ▶ Certified Professional Coach
- ▶ MBTI Step I and Step II Certification CPP Asia Pacific

AFFILIATIONS

- ▶ Career Development Association of Australia (CDAA)
- ▶ International Coach Federation (ICF)
- ▶ Queensland Association of Student Advisors (QASA)

EXPERIENCE

Stacey's experience in the education sector ranges from school career counsellor to executive leader in the tertiary sector. As the Executive Manager of CQ University's Student Success Centre, Stacey led 65 staff spread across 22 locations, with accountability for a $9 million budget. Prior to this, she led a team to grow the Central Queensland Widening Participation program from inception to over 5,000 primary and high school student participants. Stacey also led the implementation of major review and change programs within the Division of Teaching and Learning Services.

Early in her career, Stacey worked for PricewaterhouseCoopers, Sydney, in the People, Culture and Performance team, and HR Moves, London, placing executives in high profile media and tech companies, including Google.

Stacey is passionate about her client's leadership development and career advancement. Her coaching practice is steeped in contemporary theory and evidence-based practice. She believes that clients are resourceful and creative, and when given the space, can create solutions that harness their unique strengths and experiences to achieve their goals. Recently, Stacey has worked intensively with the Departments of Education Queensland and Northern Territory providing feedback and executive coaching to senior leaders in central and regional offices and in schools. She is highly recommended by all the clients she has worked with.

Get in touch

Stacey Wallace
 General Manager & Lead Coach
stacey.wallace@atmybest.com.au
 1300 099 938